

Dr. Corinna Klingler, M.Sc.

Short resume

Professional Experience

- Since 2025: Research associate at the Institute of Ethics, History & Theory of Medicine at the Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich
- 2024-2025: Coordinator for the project KOMETH-Learn focusing on ethics teaching at the Academy for Ethics in Medicine e.V. (AEM)
- 2021-2024: Research associate at the Junior Professorship for Medical Ethics with a Focus on Digitization, Faculty of Health Sciences Brandenburg
- 2018-2021: Stakeholder Manager for the German Biobank Node / German Biobank Alliance at the Charité -Universitätsmedizin Berlin
- 2018-2019: Research associate at the QUEST Center, Berlin Institute of Health, Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin
- 2014-2020: Scientific consulting work for the Global Health Ethics Unit of the World Health Organization (WHO)
- 2012-2017: Research associate at the Institute of Ethics, History & Theory of Medicine at the Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich

University Education

- 2014-2019: Doctoral studies (Dr. rer. biol. hum.) at the Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich, Germany focusing on experiences of foreign-born and foreign-trained doctors in Germany
- 2010-2011: M.Sc. “International Health Policy” at the London School of Economics & Political Science
- 2006-2010: B.A. “Philosophy & Economics” at the University of Bayreuth and Universidad de Guadalajara, Mexico
- 2005-2006: Studium Generale at the Leibniz Kolleg Tübingen

Scholarships and important Awards

- Young Talent Award 2023 from the Academy for Ethics in Medicine for the publication „Five coffin nails to informed consent: An autoethnography of battling complications in breastfeeding“
- Doctoral scholarship from the German Academic Scholarship Foundation (2014-2017)
- Carlo Schmid Scholarship for an internship at the World Health Organization (2014-2015)
- Scholarship of the German Academic Scholarship Foundation (2009-2011)

Memberships and functions

- Member of the Academy for Ethics in Medicine e.V. (AEM)
 - Member of the AEM working group „ethik learning“
- Member of the Association for Medical Education (GMA)
- Member of the Qualitative Research Network of the Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin
- Certified consultant (K1) for ethics consulting in health care, AEM
- Training as a breastfeeding support assistant at the German Training Institute for Breastfeeding Support (DAIS, 2021-2022)